Dear Ron:

Re: Executive Coaching

I just wanted to take the opportunity to personally thank you for all your hard work coaching and advising me over the past year. The experience has been invaluable and way exceeded my initial expectations since we began the process.

I have extensively changed my leadership approach as a result of your input and guidance. You provided me with great insight and sensible approaches to implement change, and kept me committed to moving forward in a professional and self-confident manner.

During the time we spent together, I have noticed enhanced performance and satisfaction in my role and in that of my team members. Overall, I have been invigorated as a leader which has provided me with new opportunities and challenges within the organization.

Again, thank-you so much for your efforts and please do not hesitate to use me as a reference at any time in the future.

Yours truly,
